Description: Little Red Hen is a time-tested cautionary tale about how we reap what we sow. When the hen asks a cat, dog, and mouse for help planting some wheat, she gets no takers: 'Not I!' said the cat. 'Not I!' said the dog. 'Not I!' said the mouse. They won't water, cut, or grind the wheat . . . or help bake a cake with it, either. So guess who eats the cake...

Review: Ordered 3 to give as gifts, also several other versions to compare. This version (Galdone) is reasonably well drawn however the classic story has been changed in that the hen bakes a cake as opposed to bread, the staff of life. Books description mentioned this but I missed it, and I like the original version better. Is cake thought to appeal but...
